A Note from the Chef

Welcome to Moji's. We hope you enjoy your dining experience. Our food and baked goods are made from scratch each day with the freshest ingredients we can find, including locally grown produce when it is available. Moji's is committed to our community and the environment. We donate all unsold baked goods to charities on a daily basis (see below). We use only recyclable and/or biodegradable plastics and paper products and we recycle all of our aluminum, plastic, and cardboard disposable items. As a member of Slow Food USA, our restaurant strives to link the pleasure of food with a commitment to community and the environment. Please understand that our menu development is an evolutionary process that will change with the chef's moods, the season, and your requests. We hope you enjoy spending time with us in our beautiful historic building in the Central Business District of Newnan. Our private dining rooms can be booked for your next meeting or event.

Lela Gouge, Chef / Owner of Moji's

Moji's Muffins and Whatnots
27 Jackson Street
Newnan, Georgia 30263

Located in the Central Business District of historic downtown Newnan across the street from the Coweta Medical Center and behind BB&T.

PARKING: Parking behind the building is very limited and is for employees only. Please park on the street, on the square, or in the public parking area behind Wishbone Fried Chicken (just before you get to Moji's on the same side of Jackson street next to Advanced Chiropractic).

HANDICAP ACCESS: Our restaurant is handicap accessible. Please feel free to use our driveway for loading / unloading.

Moji's proudly serves Masada Bakery breads. Masada breads are certified organic, zero trans fat, Kosher style breads that are baked in Norcross, Georgia and delivered to us fresh three times per week.

We serve Baby's coffee because it's the best coffee we've ever tasted. It is freshly roasted when we order it and drop shipped overnight. Baby's is the Southernmost coffee roaster in America, headquartered in Key West, Florida.

Moji's uses only antibiotic and steroid free chicken and meats. All deli meats and cheeses are sliced on-site to ensure freshness.

Moji's is a proud member of Main Street Newnan and the Newnan-Coweta Chamber of Commerce. Support our local businesses! Stay a while and shop in the historic downtown Central Business District of Newnan.

We accept cash, Visa, MasterCard, Discover, and AMX. No checks please.
